

First Holy Communion

During the 10.30am Mass here at St Mary's today, ten young people will receive Holy Communion for the first time.

Please pray for:

Dylan, Ella H, Ella M, Erin, Francesca, Georgia, Georgina, Henry, Jessica & Jude

They have been helped to get ready for this memorable day by their parents who promised, on the day of their baptism, to raise their child in the practice of the faith. As a Parish we are indebted to Julia Stevens, one of our Catechists, for guiding the children at the regular Children's Liturgy Group meetings as well as helping them to prepare to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Communion.

YEAR FOR PRIESTS, 2018 - 2019

The Feast of the Sacred Heart, on 8th June, marks the beginning of a year of thanksgiving, prayer and celebration for the priests of the Archdiocese of Birmingham.

This year marks the 450th anniversary of the foundation of the English College, Douai, the first institution to form priests for the mission in England after the Reformation. From Douai, colleges were founded across France, Spain and Portugal, and in Rome. These colleges trained the priests, without whom Catholicism would almost certainly have died out in England and Wales. For generations, priests were treated as traitors and lived under cover in fear of their lives; hundreds were martyred for their witness to Christ and His Church. Even in later times, priests were few in number, poorly resourced and socially excluded. Without their resilience and courage, the Church we have today would not exist.

This year is a time to thank god for the priests of today, as well as to celebrate the past. Lay people, deacons and members of religious congregations are encouraged to pray for the priests or the Archdiocese of Birmingham, past, present and to come. We celebrate and give thanks for those who have gone before us, and for our present generations of priests, and support them with our prayers.

Leaflets with details of a prayer especially composed to be used during this year are available at the back of church. In the coming year we shall have various devotion, for example Holy Hours, exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and times for quiet prayer.

RAFFLE TICKETS for the Grand Draw to be taken at the end of the Summer Fete on Saturday 23 June are available for you to collect from the table in the porch. Please take as many as you are able to sell to family, friends, neighbours and colleagues and, of course, buy some for yourselves too! Some of the amazing prizes are listed on displays in the porch

PLEASE RETURN THE COMPLETED TICKET STUBS AND MONEY IN AN ENVELOPE OF YOUR OWN OR ONE FROM THE PORCH TABLE MARKED 'RAFFLE'

Chris and Geoff have returned safely from their pilgrimage walk to Santiago and have brought back souvenirs from their journey to thank all parishioners who have supported them with sponsorship in their efforts to raise funds for Kemp Hospice. If they are unable to hand it over it person please find your little gift in envelopes on the porch table!

A reminder that THE CRAFT GROUP always extend a welcome to everyone who may like to take part in their creative activities. The next meeting is on:

Tues 5th June - A Sewing project (please bring sewing kits)
